

Workshop

From Patriotic Memory to a Universalistic Narrative.
Shifts in Norwegian Memory Culture after 1945 in Comparative Perspective

Oslo, 15 / 16 March 2013

Venue HL-Senteret, Villa Grande, Huk Aveny 56, Oslo
Local Traffic: Bus 30 – stop: Bygdøhus

Initiators Arnd Bauerkämper, Berlin
Odd-Bjørn Fure, Oslo

Supported by

Stipendienfonds E.ON Ruhrgas
im Stifterverband für die Deutsche Wissenschaft

Friday, 15 March 2013

- From 11:00 Registration
- 11:30 – 12:30 Guided Tour of the Exhibition of HL-Senteret
- 12:30 – 13:00 Welcome & Introduction
Odd-Bjørn Fure, Oslo; Arnd Bauerkämper, Berlin; Guri Hjeltnes, Oslo
Welcome Address
Historical Research and the Impact of Academic Cooperation. How Norwegian Historians Developed a Transnational Perspective on their History
Steffen Bruendel, Essen

Panel I – The Evolving Meaning of Norwegian Patriotism

- 13:00 – 13:50 Societal Processes – Changing Constellations of Memories. The Case of Norway in Comparative Perspective
Odd-Bjørn Fure, Oslo
- 13:50 – 14:00 Break

Panel II – Developments in Postwar Memory Culture in Norway and in the Netherlands

- 14:00 – 15:40 Beyond Resistance versus Collobaration: The Twisted Road to a Universalistic Narrative in Norway
Arnd Bauerkämper, Berlin
Competing Memories. Myth, Conflicts and Taboos in Dutch Memory Culture after 1945
Tobias Temming, Münster
- 15:40 – 16:00 Coffee

Panel III – Towards a Universalistic Narrative and the Role of the Holocaust in Norway

16:00 – 18:00 The Holocaust and the Question of Guilt in the Norwegian Historical Culture
Jon Reitan, Falstad

Linking Holocaust Education to Human Rights Education – a Symptom of the Universalization and De-Nationalization of Memory Culture in Norway?

Claudia Lenz, Oslo

Saturday, 16 March 2013

Panel IV – The Changing Narratives in Action – Education & Representations

09:00 – 12:00 From Captivity into the Classroom – Educational Initiatives of Prisoner Associations in Denmark and Norway since 1945

Robert Zimmermann, Berlin

The Representation of the Second World War and the Holocaust in the Norwegian
Museum Culture

Doreen Reinhold, Berlin

Between “the Particular” and “the Universal” – the Dynamics in Dutch Memory
Culture in Comparative Perspective

Ilse Raaijmakers, Maastricht

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

Panel V – Changing Perspectives on Marginal Groups in Postwar Norway

13:00 – 15:40 In Command of History? Historians, Memory Culture and German War Crimes in Norway

Gunnar D. Hatlehol, Trondheim

From Taboo to Compensation: How Children of Norwegian Women and German Soldiers Were Treated in Postwar Norway

Susanne Maerz, Freiburg

Norwegian Volunteers in the Waffen-SS and their Commemoration of the Second World War after 1945

Sigurd Sørli, Oslo

15:40 – 16:00 Coffee

16:00 – 17:00 Final Panel Discussion

If interested, please register beforehand via e-mail to Ann Elisabeth Mellbye (a.e.l.mellbye@hlsenteret.no) until 8 March 2013. The number of participants is limited. The participation fee is 200 NOK and will cover the guided tour, coffee/ tea and lunch on Saturday. The fee will be paid at the registration desk on arrival. If you need further information, please contact Øystein Hetland (oystein.hetland@hlsenteret.no) or Robert Zimmermann (robert.zimmermann@fu-berlin.de).