

The Swedish Women's Educational Association International, Inc. (SWEA) is pleased to announce its annual

SCHOLARSHIP FOR RESEARCH IN THE SWEDISH LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND/OR AREA STUDIES FOR THE YEAR 2024

The SWEA International Scholarship, in the amount of USD 15 000, will be awarded to a well merited doctoral candidate in the Swedish language, literature and/or area studies. It is addressed specifically to candidates who are well into the process of writing their dissertations. The candidate must be residing permanently outside Sweden and be studying at a non-Swedish university.

Application form and criteria for the Scholarship are available in Swedish on SWEA International's website, <https://swea.org/stipendier/litteraturstipendiet/>.

Deadline for submission of applications and supporting letters is January 15th, 2024.

Applications will be evaluated by an independent jury.

In March 2024, the jury will present a suitable candidate for the Literature Scholarship and the recipient is notified of the Award. All other applicants are informed that another candidate has been chosen.

The Scholarship will be awarded at the "Sverigemiddag" in Helsingborg, Sweden in August 2024.

Your assistance in ensuring that the application material on our website reaches the appropriate individuals is greatly appreciated. Feel free to post this link <https://swea.org/stipendier/litteraturstipendiet/> on your website and social media.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for more information about SWEA or our Scholarship. We look forward to hearing from you or your students.

Yours sincerely,

Anette Rydén

SWEA International's Committee for the Literature Scholarship
e-mail: litstip@swea.org